PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Independent writer and narrative designer focused on original genre fiction, character-driven conflict and interconnected story worlds. Develops feature-length story outlines with attention to plot progression, character motivation, suspense, reveals and continuity. Strong interests include anime, animation, crime thrillers, action, mystery and dark fantasy, alongside foundational knowledge of SEO and reader-focused digital content.

SELECTED WRITING & NARRATIVE PROJECTS

GENOCIDE | Dark-Fantasy Action RPG Narrative Design

Original action-RPG concept influenced by feudal Japanese settings. Developed lore, an opening cinematic, a Genjo boss encounter, a nonverbal shapeshifting companion, and environmental storytelling through shrine engravings and visual clues. Also prepared a proposed implementation brief connecting the encounter to gameplay.

RECON | Multiplayer Strategy & Management Game Concept

Developed a game-design concept centred on building and operating a criminal organisation. Work includes the five-position leadership structure, department responsibilities, progression, rival-organisation operations, and recurring police-pressure events. The concept brings together management, logistics, combat and progression systems.

THE SAXOPHONE THIEF | Animated Crime-Thriller Feature

Feature-film outline set in 1990s America, following a celebrated saxophone player who hides a life of theft and murder. The story combines an investigation, police betrayal, rival criminal organisations and a stolen car linking separate criminal worlds.

SAIMON | Connected Animated Crime / Action / Mystery Feature

A second feature in the same fictional universe, framed through a journalist interviewing a former family cook and the events recounted through flashbacks. Explores a criminal family's collapse, concealed loyalties, a survivor's search for hidden assets and the hierarchy behind the violence.

SEO & DIGITAL CONTENT KNOWLEDGE

Keyword research and search intent; SEO-friendly headline writing; organising content with descriptive headings and readable structure; aligning useful content with search queries without keyword stuffing or sacrificing quality.

CORE WRITING SKILLS

Story and character analysis; motivation and conflict; plot structure and reveals; continuity and worldbuilding; environmental storytelling; research and synthesis; editorial revisions and feedback.
